WORKSHOP NEWS

This month we are having a Christmas Social on the third Thursday evening instead of a workshop. Details are on page 3.

EXHIBIT NEWS

The Art Museum exhibit (see details in last month's newsletter) is excellent. The first Sunday of the month and Wednesdays are free.

The exhibit opening artists' reception at the Dash-In was attended by about 20 of our members. The prints will be taken down on January 9. Doug will not be attending club meetings after the first of the year due to scheduling conflicts next semester. You will either need to take down your own prints or make arrangements with someone who will be taking them down to get them to you.
